

SUNDAY

I realize Your amazing love for me is not based on my performance. More amazing is the Savior of the world desires a few minutes with me today. Lord, help me forever remember what a gift it is to sit with You. Help me to embrace what comes my way as an opportunity. Let me rest in Psalm 86:13 “Great is your love toward me.”

MONDAY

Dear Father, thank You for another day to be your light in the world. Thank You for allowing me to enjoy Your sunshine, my family, Your Word and Jesus today! It is another blessed day because You are in it. I am thankful for all of the blessings You give me each day. I love You! “This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it!” Psalm 118:24

TUESDAY

Heavenly Father, may nothing separate me from You today. Help me to walk by the Word, not my feelings. Protect me from my own careless thoughts, words and actions. Keep my heart pure and undivided.

WEDNESDAY

Loving Father, I pray for the lost and hurting people of the world. I pray You use me to spread Your Good News to someone today. It grieves me to know many have died without Jesus. I am eternally grateful for the cross and Jesus' blood shed for me.

THURSDAY

Heavenly Father, make me joyful in the ascension of Your Son, Jesus Christ. May I follow Him into eternal life. His ascension is my glory and hope. Lord, in your ascension You gave me new life, a free life, and a life full of new possibilities. Thank You.

FRIDAY

Lord, I bring my hopes, needs and desires to You. I am confident of success because You are "one of us" and confident of answers because You rule the universe. Yours is the name above all others, the name before which every knee bows and every tongue confesses - You are Lord!

SATURDAY

Father, I thank You for my godly friends and the wise people You place in my life. Increase my wisdom as I walk through life and the experiences I will face with those You place in my life. Guard my lips so no rash words bring ruin. Prov. 13:3 Those who guard their mouths preserve their lives.
